A Referee's Prayer

Before we take the field of play we pray
Save us from abuse today.
Save us from disgruntled fans,
From bottles, toilet rolls and cans.
Give my legs the speed to keep the pace,
For the middle of the park is a lonely place.
When the game is over if disaster looms,
Guide us safely to the Dressing Rooms,
Protect my linesman true and tall,
Let their eyes be sharp for "off the ball".
To the lads in the dugout seething and fumin',
Remember lads we're only human.
Protect my umpires with their coats so bright,
Let their greens be green and their whites be white.
Let their eye and their vision be straight and true
Let their errors if any be small and few.
To all our friends on the Sunday Game
Don't always on us pronounce the blame.
And when at last our time is o'er
And we're waiting at St. Peter's door,
He'll say "come in lads" with eyes full of glee,
"For your hell was on earth, you're the Referee".

Tribute to the Fallen

In Football, Hurling, Handball,
Whichever game you've tried,
You try your best to win it,
And bring honour to your side,
But why be disappointed,
If you fail to make the grade,
To win or lose is not what counts,
It's how the game was played.

And when the final whistle blows,
And your heart begins to glow,
Show respect for your opponent,
Whose heart is full of woe;
Go clasp his hand in friendship,
Say "there'll be another day",
And trust that he'll do likewise,
When things go the other way.

BUÍOCHAS

As PRO of Coiste Chontae Loch Garman I am delighted to be involved in the production of our Club Directory 2013. You can also access this information on our website wexfordgaa.ie

This booklet should especially be a welcome tool for club managers who might like to engage with their counterparts in other areas to organise challenge games and also it should be useful for the media to make contact with club personnel and indeed to all officers in the clubs. To all of you in clubs and serving on committees, I say míle buíochas go léir. You, the club officers, have contributed in a huge way to making my job easier and I compliment you all for your unstinting backing and wish you all a very successful year ahead.
